The Truth

BRIAN MELO

The Truth is a collection of songs that showcases Brian Melo's emergence as a world class singer-songwriter. He has the uncanny ability to combine classic rock energy with contemporary nuance and unforgettable melodies. His lyrics, even the song titles themselves, tell intriguing stories and generate curiosity. The songs touch the edges of many contemporary music genres and yet have an unmistakable continuity as a body of work. Whether it's the title track "The Truth", "Soundproof", "Anywhere But Here" (heard in a new episode of Degrassi), "Weigh Me In" or the quirky bonus track "Ain't Thinkin' About You", you can hear the sound of a rising star with a genuine soul and spirit belying his age and experience.

"Brian Melo is the real thing" - Brian May, Queen

The Truth is the second album from the Hamilton, ON native and 2007 Canadian Idol Winner who has already toured extensively and has a solid airplay and sales base. Brian Melo's loyal fan base is primed and ready for The Truth!

BROOKE FRASER

BLURB

Flags is a dreamy, alternative-pop collection that showcases her agile soprano, lilting melodies, and knack for telling her stories through the lives of vibrant characters on songs like "Betty," (co-written with Switchfoot's Jon Foreman and Ben West of Detroit indie duo The Real Efforts of Real People), "Crows and Locusts," "Jack Kerouac," and "Ice On Her Lashes." "I've never used as many characters or as much narrative in my songwriting as I have on this record," Fraser says. "On my previous albums [2003's What To Do With Daylight and 2008's Albertine], I was singing completely as myself, which is why I think I got so burnt out from touring. Albertine was inspired by incredibly significant events and people and every time I'd sing I'd go back to that moment where my heart was ripped open. So singing such heavy songs nearly every night for three years took a toll. On Flags, it's still me speaking, but it's me speaking through the voices of different characters and their stories. It's more survivable." The album also features a co-written duet with Aqualung's Matt Hales, titled "Who Are We Fooling."

SELLING POINTS

- Brooke's 2008 album Albertine became a best seller, including top 5 on US iTunes and the Billboard Top 100. To date it has scanned over 60,000 units in just Canada and the US.
- On her last tour in 2008, she sold out theatres in many major markets including LA and NYC.
- Awareness of Brooke continues to grow at a rapid pace with over 10 million views of her videos on Youtube and over 80,000 ardent Facebook friends.
- Brooke, who now lives in Los Angeles, will undertake extensive touring in support of Flags, including stops in Canada and then next years SXSW.
- On August 21st, the first of a weekly series of webisodes documenting the recording of Flags, was released.
- A full array of marketing tools will be available including banners, posters, tour flyers, bio, press release and photos.

PS I LOVE YOU

MEET ME AT THE MUSTER STATION

RELEASE DATE : OCTOBER 5, 2010

Kingston's PS I Love You is two guys with one mission: Your face, melted. Shredding guitars and clockwork-tight drums sit atop the rumble of bass pedals, all held together by vocalist Paul Saulnier wailing painfully romantic nothings into your ears.

Meet Me At The Muster Station, the debut full length album from PS I Love You, has been quietly coming together in Kingston, Ontario. Guitarist, bass-pedalist and vocalist Paul Saulnier originally conceived the band as a solo project but quickly found that the songs were creeping out of the boundaries of the sleepy university city on their own legs.

In the last few years, he has opened for virtually every band passing through the small city, marking the beginning of a web of connections throughout the general public and industry, all asking when the heck a full length effort was coming.

Since then, the addition of Benjamin Nelson on drums has given the band a live presence previously unachievable with a casio drum machine, leading to the band sharing the stage with notable acts like Born Ruffians, Japandroids and Waves.

Pitchfork Media caught wind of the band through c split 7", released with friend Diamond Rings, giving the track Facelove a Best New Music rating. The buzz has been accelerating, with a growing fanbase latching onto PS I Love You's sound, a heavy contrast from the sugary, 80s influenced sounds of the first decade of the millenium.

One of those rare albums that gets better as the minutes tick on, Meet Me At The Muster Station is a sonic assault in the best sense. Headphones on, volume up.

Paper Bag Records is a Canadian owned and operated record label based out of Toronto, Ontario. Upcoming/Recent releases include You Say Party, Born Ruffians, The Acorn, Winter Gloves and more!

Nortec Collective Presents
Bostich + Fussible | Bulevar 2000

NORTEC COLLECTIVE PRESENT: BOSTICH+FUSSIBLE

Grammy-Nominated Icons, Nortec Collective's Bostich & Fussible Present New Album 'Bulevar 2000'

Latin Electronica's Biggest Act Returns Following a GRAMMY-nomination and Recent Bonnaroo & Central Park Triumphs

Nortec Collective's Bostich and Fussible are back with 'Bulevar 2000' - the follow-up to their critically-acclaimed GRAMMY-nominated album 'Tijuana Sound Machine.' Two tracks from the new release are already confirmed for the highly-anticipated upcoming Microsoft Xbox 360 game "Springfield". This comes just as the group continues their tireless touring across the Americas and Europe. Following a performance at the Treasure Island Music Festival, SF Weekly said that, "The highlight was Nortec Collective: Bostich + Fussible... the best dance music of all time. It's sexy, suave and has real instruments."

'Tijuana Sound Machine' received rave reviews across the world from critics and fans alike. LA Weekly called it, "mesmerizing and multilayered," while Billboard declared, "This is one party you don't want to miss." The group packed Los Angeles shows following tremendous support from KCRW's "Morning Becomes Eclectic" - the influential national radio program.

Nortec fans are well familiar with the stylings of Bostich and Fussible, as they were the masterminds behind hit Nortec tracks "Tengo La Voz", "Tijuana Bass", and "Tijuana Makes Me Happy" off the double Latin Grammy-nominated album, 'Tijuana Sessions, Vol. 3'.

The group's music has appeared in commercials for Volvo, Dell, Fidelity Mutual, Edwin Jeans (with Brad Pitt), Nissan, and many others. Tracks from Nortec can also be heard in HBO's "Big Love", NBC's "Friday Night Lights" and the movies "Fast Food Nation" and "Babel" as well as the video games, "FIFA Soccer" and "FIFA Street 2." An interactive coffee table book entitled "Paso del Nortec- This Is Tijuana" dedicated to the Nortec phenomena was released worldwide.

"GENIUS OF LIVE"

LIVE CD + BONUS REMIX DISC OF "GENIUS OF LOVE"

FEATURING CHRIS FRANTZ & TINA WEYMOUTH

Nacional Records is proud to announce the September 28th release of Tom Tom Club's 'Genius Of Live.' The iconic group's album will feature tracks from the album 'Live At The Club House' as well as remix tributes to the timeless smash hit, "Genius Of Love."

'Live At The Club House' was recorded with the group performing at peak energy for a collection of friends in their home studio. It features Tom Tom Club's effervescent, energetic, and upbeat live show while proving their original fusion of hip hop, reggae, Afrobeat and funk is truly timeless. The album travels the group's catalog including hits like "Genius Of Love" and "Wordy Rappinghood." Recorded shortly after the September 11th tragedy, it converted the stress and paranoia of the times into positive energy.

The Tom Tom Club was formed by Chris Frantz and Tina Weymouth. Graduates from the Rhode Island School of Design, they moved to New York City where they founded the Talking Heads as a trio with David Byrne. In early 1981, the Talking Heads took a hiatus after five years of touring and four studio albums. Chris and Tina began the Tom Tom Club.

Artists like Ozomatli, Nortec Collective, Money Mark, The Pinker Tones and others, remix "Genius Of Love" on the bonus disc.

O.M.G.!

Double 12" LP

O.M.G.!, Rusko's definitive watershed release for dubstep – the sound he has successfully pioneered worldwide – is finally getting a formal vinyl lp release. It just so happens to be a special, limited run of gatefold double lp's, made on marbled vinyl. This record has cemented Rusko's status as one of the most exciting, rapidly ascending talents in the wider world of electronic music. O.M.G.! sees Rusko marrying dubstep to a broader palate of synthetic styles, bringing together UK and US dancefloor sounds and uniting a seemingly disparate array of guests through his visceral, fun-loving production. The result is a unique sunshine-soaked pool party of a record. Opening with the devastating dubstep wobbler Woo Boost, Rusko then takes Amber Coffman of Brooklyn indie rock group Dirty Projectors on an unexpected detour through UKG and garage with summer anthem, and current single, Hold On. Other guests include Ben Westbeech, Rod Azlan, Redlight, Gucci Mane, and some co-production by Crookers themselves!

BUJU BANTON

Before the Dawn

BUJU BANTON FACTS

- Buju Banton has been nominated for four Grammy Awards: Rasta Got Soul (2009), Too Bad (2006), Friends For Life (2003), Til Shiloh (1995).
- Buju Banton's 1992 debut album Mr. Mention earned him more #1 singles than any other Jamaica artist, including the late great Bob Marley.
- Buju Banton's album Til Shiloh remains one of the best-selling reggae albums of all time, ranking among Spin mag's Top 20 Albums of 1995 and Rolling Stone mag's Best Albums Of The Decade.
- Buju Banton's album Too Bad, released on his own Gargamel Music label, held court on Billboard mag's Top Reggae Albums chart for 37 weeks and was named one of the magazines Top Reggae Albums for 2007.
- Buju Banton has collaborated with a wide range of artists such as John Legend, Wyclef Jean, Trey Songz, Damian Marley, Salif Keita, Stephen Marley.

ABOUT BEFORE THE DAWN

Before The Dawn is the ninth studio album by international reggae icon, Buju Banton. The 10 powerful tracks that comprise this very special project are some of the most prophetic songs written by Banton since his extraordinary entry into the music business over twenty years ago. Recorded at the artist's own Gargamel Music studio in Kingston, Jamaica, Before The Dawn literally pierces the soul with traditional roots, easy rock, and especially heartfelt reggae. The album's unofficial anthem, "Innocent" strikes a highly personal chord that will resonate deeply with the longtime Buju Banton fans.

MARKETING

Gargamel Music will implement a strategic online marketing campaign to create awareness about the forthcoming album with the unofficial single "Innocent." Street teams will operate in the top 10 Buju Banton markets: New York, Los Angeles, Washington D.C., Boston, South Florida, The Bay Area, Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore and Atlanta. Direct marketing to fans will happen via Buju Banton's official Facebook Fan Page (85,000+ fans) and official MySpace Page (100,000+ fans).

RADIO

In early August, the lead promotional track from the album, "Innocent," will be serviced to core reggae, college, alternative and urban radio.

PRESS

Gargamel Music will digitally service Media and Tastemakers with "Innocent." Buju Banton will grace the cover of an upcoming issue of the Miami New Times (also Broward edition). Additional feature stories, profiles and album reviews will run on the AP wire, in core reggae publications (Riddim), the top 100 newspapers (NY Times, LA Times, Miami Herald), leading music magazines: (Vibe, Rolling Stone, The Fader), industry trades: (Billboard, CMJ, Urban Network), Canadian outlets: (Peace, Exclaim).

ADVERTISING

Print advertising will run in The Fader, Jamrock, Reggae Festival Guide, Jamaica Gleaner US, Jamaica Star US. Radio spots will run week of release on Irie FM, Irie Jam, Link Up, Wah Gwan and other core radio stations in the Top 10 Buju Banton markets. Banner ads will be placed on high traffic sites like ReggaeFestivalGuide.com, TheFader.Com, AllHipHop.com.

THE SNIPS BLACKOUTS

TRACKLISTING:

01. TIRED TIRES
02. BLACK LEATHER VEST
03. WHITE GHOST
04. FINKLE IS EINHORN
05. DAYS DEFLATE
06. BLACKOUTS

IT'S RARE THAT A BAND IS GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO COMPLETELY REINVENT ITSELF. IT'S RARER FOR A BAND TO DO IT RIGHT. WELLAND, ONTARIO'S THE SNIPS HAVE MANAGED SUCH A SEISMIC SHIFT WITH "BLACKOUTS", DUE OCTOBER 12TH ON DRIVE RECORDS/FONTANA NORTH DISTRIBUTION.

FORMED OVER TEN YEARS AGO IN THE SCREW-AROUND WAY THAT MOST HIGH SCHOOL BANDS COME TOGETHER, THE BAND (THEN KNOWN AS THE CEREMONIAL SNIPS) MANAGED TO GET IT TOGETHER ENOUGH TO GRAB THE ATTENTION OF NOTED CANADIAN PUNK LABEL UNION 2112, ALONG WITH JAPANESE IMPRINT IN-N-OUT RECORDS. THEIR FULL-LENGTH DEBUT "CHECK YOUR AUDIO" TOOK THE BAND ALL OVER NORTH AMERICA, LEADING THEM TO PERFORM OVER 160 TIMES IN 2008 ALONE. CANADIAN AND AMERICAN TOURS WITH BANDS LIKE A WILHELM SCREAM, STREETLIGHT MANIFESTO, THE FLAMING TSUNAMIS, AND BLACK LUNGS FOLLOWED, AS DID DATES ON WARPED TOUR AND A SPLIT 7" WITH GOOD FRIENDS (AND FELLOW ONTARIO PUNKS) THE FLATLINERS, THIS TIME ON PAPER+PLASTICK RECORDS.

BUT AFTER OVER A DECADE, THE BAND WAS DUE FOR A CHANGE. OUTGROWING THE FRENETIC THRASH-TINGED SKA-PUNK OF CHECK YOUR AUDIO, THE BAND PARTED WAYS WITH ORIGINAL VOCALIST MIKE PODIO, DITCHED THE "CEREMONIAL" CAVEAT OF THEIR NAME, AND MOVED TRUMPET PLAYER RICKY PRIDMORE UP INTO THE FRONTMAN SPOT. THE REINVIGORATED BAND FOUND THEMSELVES WRITING IN A NEW, EXCITING WAY, USING THE HORN TALENTS OF PRIDMORE AND GUITARIST CHRIS ACCURSI TO ACCENT THEIR SONGS, RATHER THAN LEAD THEM.

THE RESULT OF A YEAR SPENT RE-WRITING THE SNIPS RULEBOOK IS THE SIX SONGS CONTAINED ON "BLACKOUTS", WHICH MOVE FROM THE CATCHY, ANTHEMIC ROCK 'N' ROLL OF 'TIRED TIRES' TO THE HEAVY, HOT SNAKES-INSPIRED GROOVE OF 'FINKLE IS EINHORN'. CURRENTLY ON TOUR WITH THROWBACK POP-PUNKS LOWTALKER (MEMBERS OF COMEBACK KID, MISERY SIGNALS), THE BAND IS LOOKING AT AN UPCOMING NORTH AMERICAN TOUR WITH THE FLATLINERS, A TRIP DOWN TO VENERABLE PUNK INSTITUTION THE FEST IN GAINESVILLE, FL THIS OCTOBER, AND EAST COAST CANADA BEFORE THE YEAR RUNS OUT.

PUTTING THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON THE VIDEO FOR 'TIRED TIRES', THE SNIPS ARE GETTING READY TO HIT THE ROAD WITH ALL CYLINDERS FIRING WHEN "BLACKOUTS" IS RELEASED ON OCTOBER 12TH.

Martina Topley Bird

No question about it, Martina Topley Bird's singing holds a key to some classic British pop -- hers is the voice of Tricky's masterwork Maxinquaye; she duetted with Roots Manuva on the last Gorillaz; and she currently sings with Massive Attack. Her collaborators range from Common, to Diplo, to Leila.

Some Place Simple presents a kind of songbook, combining brand new compositions with old favorites, everything here sounds fresh --intimate and alive, uncovered. A streamlined, spacious record that throws the spotlight exactly where it should be: on Martina's lovely melodies and fine songwriting, and the voice wrapped round them--warm, limber and totally unmistakable.

This record comes to Ipecac via the Blur frontman Damon Albarn's, Honest Jons London label. The idea for this record came from Damon, after he saw the live show supporting Massive Attack. Recorded over one week at his Studio 13.

THE COOPER BROTHERS

IN FROM THE COLD

After a 20 year hiatus, the COOPER BROTHERS are back...

Canada's premiere country-rock band from the seventies through to the mid 80's, the Cooper Brothers first gained international attention when they signed a major recording contract with Capricorn Records (famous for several of the most popular southern-rock acts of the time including: The Allman Brothers, Marshall Tucker, Delbert McClinton and Elvin Bishop). The Cooper Brothers, Brian and Richard, released two albums under the Capricorn label, the self-titled, Cooper Brothers and Pitfalls of the Ballroom. Both albums sold extremely well and the singles "The Dream Never Dies", "Rock and Roll Cowboys" "Show Some Emotion" and "I'll Know Her When I See Her" all charted on The Billboard Hot 100.

In September 2009 with Colin Linden at the helm, the brothers went to Masterlink Studio in Nashville to begin recording with an amazing line-up of session musicians including Audley Freed (Black Crowes, Jakob Dylan, Dixie Chicks) Dan Dugmore (Linda Rostadt, James Taylor) Kevin McKendree (Brian Seltzer, Lee Roy Parnell) Lynn Williams (John Hiatt, Delbert McClinton) and Steve Mackey (Trisha Yearwood)

In October 2010 the new Cooper Brothers album entitled "IN FROM THE COLD" will be released, featuring 12 brand new songs. The new CD also features a number of guest artists including Blue Rodeo's Jim Cuddy and - coming full circle perhaps - Capricorn alumni - Delbert McClinton, and Chuck Leavell.

KEY SELLING POINTS

When former Savatage singer Zak Stevens left the band to form CIRCLE II CIRCLE, the whole Metal scene listened up. Right from the debut "Watching In Silence" Zak made unmistakably clear that he was willing and able to continue where Savatage had left off, but without giving his new band's sound a more up-to-date feel. Now, with the release of CIRCLE II CIRCLE's fifth studio album "Consequence Of Power", the master vocalist and his band return with their ultimate masterpiece. What else was expected from Zak than a first class Power Metal record with strong hooks, heavy riffs and his unique voice? But this time CIRCLE II CIRCLE have simply exceeded everything they have released in the past. Watch out for your favorite album of 2010: "Consequence Of Power" by CIRCLE II CIRCLE!

BLOODY WAR

Songs 1924-1939

Soldier's laments, heart-songs, and patriotic tunes have been an essential part of the American sound-scape for many generations. Most of these compositions, however, have been identified with the Vietnam War or with World War II. This newly minted collection presents performances captured between 1924 and 1939 of songs originating from the American Civil War, the Spanish-American War, and the "war to end all wars," the First World War. These recordings were the folk foundation both of the common soldier's perspective of the battlefield and of the family and loved ones that were left behind.

Bloody War recreates the musical panorama of the early 20th century with songs of warfare that are humorous and tragic, sardonic and vivid. Many of these songs have not been heard since they were originally issued in the 1920s and 1930s and are as relevant today as they were when they were first composed. Highlights of this collection include the masterpiece "Dixie Division" by Fiddlin' John Carson, the legendary Atlanta, GA entertainer that was among the first rural performers to wax country music. His idiosyncratic fiddling meshes together a paean for Southern soldiers that have fought in the American Civil War to the First World War, held together with a medley of "Dixie," "Swanee River," and "Yankee Doodle." Contemporary banjoist and singer, Wade Mainer, contributes the poignant "Not A Word Of That Be Said" a mere two years before the outbreak of World War II.

A deep diversity of artists & performances are to be found in this anthology: from the inspired street-singing of William & Versey Smith to the plaintive balladry of Buell Kazee and from the red hot breakdown of Earl Johnson to the mesmerizing guitar blues of Darby & Tarlton. Produced by Christopher King and Josh Rosenthal, with art-design by Susan Archie and liner-notes by country music historian Tony Russell. A portion of all proceeds from the sale of this album will be donated to Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America (IAVA.org).
